

ARCHERY GB INSTRUCTOR AWARD

9am – 5.30pm, Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 April 2024

at the Jarman Centre, 119 Duchess Drive, Newmarket CB8 9HB

(both days must be attended in full)

---

The course provides training that is focussed on teaching short taster sessions such as those delivered in activity centres; it is predominantly practical in nature and uses professional learning resources to help train candidates.

What does the course for instructors cover?

- Establishing and maintaining safety on a range
- Using a session plan to prepare and deliver a session
- Identifying appropriate equipment for beginners to use
- Explaining / demonstrating the simple steps to shooting barebow
- Using engagement, variety and challenge to make sessions fun
- Adapting sessions based on the individual needs of participants

Who is the course for?

- Outdoor instructors
- Teachers
- New or inexperienced archers

How long does the course take?

- The award takes 2 days to complete (approximately 2 days of training including an external assessment)

Outcomes of the course and renewals

- Upon successful completion of the course, candidates will be awarded a certificate of achievement and become an Archery GB-qualified Instructor.
- To keep the qualification valid, every three years candidates will need to complete a short online renewal process. This demonstrates that they understand minimum safety requirements for instructing archery.

ARCHERY GB INSTRUCTOR AWARD

9am – 5.30pm Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 April 2024
at the Jarman Centre, 119 Duchess Drive, Newmarket CB8 9HB
The Archery range is outdoors and you will get wet if it rains

Meals: Help-yourself hot and cold drinks and biscuits will be available throughout but no other food. Please bring a packed lunch, or there is a local shop about 1 mile away.

Accommodation: The course is non-residential but if you bring a sleeping bag you may stay over at no extra charge (there is a fridge, kettle, microwave and toaster) or there is a Premier Inn and other hotels in Newmarket, to be paid for at your own expense.

Kit: Warm and waterproof outdoor gear, indoor and outdoor shoes, notebook and pen. You should not bring any archery equipment.

Fee: The course fee is £230 which includes tuition and assessment fees plus drinks and biscuits. If you become an instructor for the Jarman Centre and run a minimum of 3 sessions during 2024 we will refund £50 of your course fees. You may be able to apply for grant funding, eg (for Girlguiding Cambridgeshire East leaders) from county or region, to help you attend this training.

To reserve a place please pay online to CAF Bank for the credit of 'Cambs East Guides Jarman Centre' (Sort Code: 40-52-40, Account no: 00017752), or by Paypal to jarmancentre@cambseastguides.org.uk stating Archery and your name. Alternatively send the form with a cheque to Archery, 35 Carnation Way, Red Lodge, Bury St. Edmunds, IP28 8TW.

The course fee is non-refundable unless the Jarman Centre has to cancel. Places are strictly limited to 12 people and will be confirmed once payment is made.

Booking your place on the course: We will accept all expressions of interest with a deposit of £50 to be paid in full by the end of January 2024.

Questions: Please email estate@jarmancentre.org.uk if you need any further information.
